WIEKELIEDJES

Unique refined Dutch listening songs with a raw edge, rock solid lyrics interwoven with beautiful melodies

“WIEKELIEDJES writes Dutch-language pop music, super intimate, super beautiful, a really good combination with her guitar, and I am very curious to see what comes of it. I am very happy that I discovered her.”

Hilin's Livingroom Session (P60)

Biography

Wieke has thrown herself into writing her own songs - WIEKELIEDJES - and letting her unique voice be heard. Essentially doing what she was already busy with as a child: making songs with her guitar. Back then à la Kurt Cobain. Now à la herself. In her show, Wieke takes you into her life as an admirer, full-time doubter, doomsayer, part-time optimist, worrier, lover of blind spots, and attractor of wildlife. She lets you immerse yourself in the world of the Wiekeliedjes: refined listening songs with rock-solid lyrics supported by beautiful melodies on both guitar and piano. Wieke is on the rise, and you can ride along with her!

EP-release, NPO Radio1 and sold out shows

Over the past few months, Wieke has surprised many ears with her singles En ik overdrijf and Gletsjers worden water. Each one a gem that can be considered an asset to Dutch-language songwriting. Her third single, ‘En ik overdrijf’, was recently played on NPO Radio 1 and described by presenter Ronald Giphart as ‘fantastic music’ (broadcast on February 28).

On March 22, Wieke presented her EP ‘En ik overdrijf’ at Theater Kikker, which sold out twice in lightning speed.

Socials

WIEKELIEDJES has within a relatively short time (about two years) created a steadily growing and highly engaged group of listeners of approximately 1200 followers on Instagram, Bluesky, Facebook, and YouTube. The WIEKELIEDJES lend themselves to smaller listening venues, small theater halls - places where people come to listen. To her music. To her lyrics. To her inner world.

"I can only say that I think that 'En ik overdrijf' is a fantastic song!"

Ronald Giphart, NPORadio1 De Taalstaat
